

S... Vinetable
no na-
ages of allfor-
which he iso
almost
of the Bit-remove ont re-
great
nciple,

be been arkable
ling the
They Tonia,
tion of Billion
LEER'S
horetic,
horetic,
Altera-
Florida,
M. Y.
lers.

---

M

---

red

adventure,
agure as its agure (4 hundreds)
m to have
MEDIAL AND

---

le, Pad,
and female.
en, Mich.
on ever saw,
printed on
of 250
want them

1858.

ENTED.
nt in the
For sale
ETALLIO
New York.
will please
in each and

near of Ross Trial Pack-
evidence of mond, Ind.

CO.

—
ments
rywhere.
Town.
on the
for sale
BEAN ORGAN
dication.
orica to the

INCILLITH'S
Mason, Mass.
HUGHES,
MAKER FOR LIVE PAIR, ON HORSE OR COLLECTED IN
are follow-
for, sample
and K. J. H.
haman, Mich.
Machin.
In 3 years
coral at Wash-
on all sides of the world. In Collins, with
if dozen ships
is willing to be benefited, I will give him
for directly
to me for details.
E. L. L.,
North, Pa.

S.
Manufacturers,
St. Street,
NEW YORK.
Price List.

HAM'S
E
Wheel
wheels, and pstition. Was improved in Price

Write Address
to, Mich.
anywhere. For Dayton, Ohio

Bazaar
STYLES
y!!

3223
C SKIR
ove walk
y best pai d product
tern, with PATTERNS
of the ATORS
ends and scription
MAY 25U
York City
AAR" MAY
RE the w

torily explain when
me to be lodged in

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.
THE WHITE HOUSE AND SOME OF ITS OCCUPANTS.

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1875.

When the Missouri entered the White House, it could, if anything, boast of fewer comforts and less convenience than the former building still in its original shape. The new building, which is now the residence of the President, is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion. The President's office is on the second floor, and is a large, comfortable room, with a view of the city. The President's family quarters are on the third floor, and are also comfortable and convenient. The White House is a fine example of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion.

When the Missouri entered the White House, it could, if anything, boast of fewer comforts and less convenience than the former building still in its original shape. The new building, which is now the residence of the President, is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion. The President's office is on the second floor, and is a large, comfortable room, with a view of the city. The President's family quarters are on the third floor, and are also comfortable and convenient. The White House is a fine example of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion.

When the Missouri entered the White House, it could, if anything, boast of fewer comforts and less convenience than the former building still in its original shape. The new building, which is now the residence of the President, is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion. The President's office is on the second floor, and is a large, comfortable room, with a view of the city. The President's family quarters are on the third floor, and are also comfortable and convenient. The White House is a fine example of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion.

When the Missouri entered the White House, it could, if anything, boast of fewer comforts and less convenience than the former building still in its original shape. The new building, which is now the residence of the President, is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion. The President's office is on the second floor, and is a large, comfortable room, with a view of the city. The President's family quarters are on the third floor, and are also comfortable and convenient. The White House is a fine example of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion.

When the Missouri entered the White House, it could, if anything, boast of fewer comforts and less convenience than the former building still in its original shape. The new building, which is now the residence of the President, is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion. The President's office is on the second floor, and is a large, comfortable room, with a view of the city. The President's family quarters are on the third floor, and are also comfortable and convenient. The White House is a fine example of modern architecture, and is well adapted to the needs of the Executive mansion.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE ADDITION of ante-rooms to the rear end of Weymouth Town Hall is progressing satisfactorily, and the improvement will be finished in season for the grand concert of Post 58, G. A. R., the 20th inst. This addition will do away with the awkward and inconvenient substitute of a curtained enclosure for performers, and afford them abundant room for retirement, the addition being divided into two large apartments.

DUPPLICATE FRACTURE.—During the year of the past winter, Mr. M. M. Hubert, of Weymouth Landing, unfortunately fractured one of his arms while coasting. Last Monday evening, Mr. Hubert slipped on the stone steps of the Baptist vestry, at the conclusion of the service in that place, and falling sustained a second fracture of the same arm, in the same place. The fracture is not so serious as the first injury, and was skillfully adjusted by Dr. Tinkham.

MATRIMONIAL.—The marriage announcements this week record another tying of the hymeneal knot by one of our Justices—the venerable Jacob Lord, Esq., of South Weymouth. Our clergymen must look to their laurels, or they will lose all their marriage fees by this "new departure." Perhaps it would pay for the clergy to advertise in the Gazette that they will attend to "all orders promptly, and work done in the neatest manner and at satisfactory rates."

THE MARTHA WASHINGTON SUPPER, given in the vestry of the Methodist Church, East Weymouth, on Wednesday evening, was a success in every respect. A full account of the entertainment will be given next week.

REV. MR. GRACE, of the M. E. Church, East Weymouth, will deliver the oration in Weymouth, Decoration Day. Mr. G. is a comrade of Post 58, G. A. R.

REV. MR. PAINTER, of Stafford Springs, Conn., will lecture on "Ice and Esquimaux" or a Summer trip to Labrador," at the Old North Church, Friday evening, at half past seven.

Mr. Painter was a member of a party from Boston, who spent nearly three months on the trip, among the icebergs, and in visiting many points of interest on the Coast of Labrador, including the Mission Stations, and the trading posts of the Hudson's Bay Co.

SPELLING MATCH.—At the Congregational Church, of Weymouth and Braintree, last Friday evening, there was a spirited contest between the pupils of the North and South High Schools, in which Miss Emma W. Sherman, of East Weymouth, took the first prize of an "Unabridged," and Miss Emma F. Ambler the second prize of a copy of Shakespeare. The words were offered by J. W. Armstrong, Esq., and Messrs. Yose, Shaw and Lewis were the referees. The audience numbered about 200.

FAIR.—The first Universal Society of Weymouth held their annual fair and entertainment in Lincoln Hall, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings last, a large number of their friends being present each evening. The articles offered for sale embraced a good variety of specimens of the handwork of the ladies, in addition to those purchased for the occasion, and some of the more valuable articles were disposed of at nice low prices. Among these were a nice velvet hall, which his brother Fred, was the fortunate recipient of a necessary adjunct of housekeeping in the shape of a bed quilt. A doll's bedstead and bureau was taken by Mr. Ed. Phillips; and Mr. Chas. Trotter walked off with the mammoth corn ball, weighing 3 lb. 12 1/4 oz., the weight of which was accurately guessed by him. Another contestant for this prize, Master Austin Dalley, came within one-fourth of an ounce of the weight.

A beautiful feature of the fair was the flower table, containing an elegant assortment of floral offerings from the green-house of Mr. James, of Weymouth Landing, and their exceedingly attractive appearance produced a lively trade in this department.

The dramatic entertainment on Tuesday evening comprised the drama of "Maid of Croissey," and on Wednesday evening was offered the farce of "Aunt Charlotte's Maid," the parts being regally sustained by amateurs connected with the Society.

PROGRESSING.—The walls of the new Catholic church at Weymouth Landing are under construction, the material used being brick, with stone window casings. There will be six large and elegant windows on each side, and the structure, when completed, will be of a highly ornamental character, making, probably, the finest edifice of this denomination ever erected in a New England village.

The statement that the School Committee of Weymouth have determined to erect a High School building at the Landing, and have secured a lot for the purpose, is incorrect, as we are informed that no action has yet been taken in the matter.

WORK FOR POOR BOYS.—At this season, country employers find much use for the labor of large boys, and many such lads come from the country, and are lodged in the city. The Weymouth Society, in New York, are boys who have had little training and of rough habits, but they will be of use on the farm or in the shop, and to employ them would be a charity to the lads and an advantage to the employers. All employers of labor desiring to aid this benevolent work should write to C. O'Connor, Supt. of the Newsboys' Lodging House, 15 New Chambers St., New York, stating the particulars in regard to the boys whom they would employ, their address, with the name of the town and county, and the best means of reaching the place; also, what portion of the railroad fares they are willing to pay.

South Weymouth.

After long waiting, we have at last had a forecast of Summer—one of those warm, sultry, May-days, so suggestive in days of "Auld Lang Syne," of the arrival of Weymouth's luxury—the Alewives. Now we at South Weymouth are about ready to rebel at the wholesale destruction of this fish, that has been the source of so much support to the honest poor of our town, and are about ready to take the matter in hand ourselves; for we sometimes think our good Selectmen may have too great interest in the Iron Corporation, to move very vigorously in this matter. We can be very patient, you know, when our pockets are touched; but when you touch our stomachs, you touch a vital spot, and four hundred herrings are the inalienable rights set forth in our town "Constitution."

With the return of warm evenings the very spirit of mischief seems to have taken possession of the boys. Quiet, peaceful citizens, are required to possess a large amount of grace to keep them from "making a remark" not always sacred, when they sit by a window, while hundreds of pebbles are thrown against the glass. Large stones are placed in the carriage ruts and upon the sidewalks. Corals are tied to bell-knobs, so that the boys standing on the opposite side of the street can call people to the door an indefinite number of times. Last Saturday evening the boys amused themselves once too often, drawing ropes across the street about a foot from the ground, and across grassways. These boys were detected, and while we understand they are left to the correction of their parents at present, the matter is held back only on their good behavior, and with another exhibition of mischief they are to be brought to the stern discipline of justice.

At a Spelling Match held at the vestry of Rev. Geo. F. Stanton's Church, in the old fashioned way, Miss Lucy Paine, a member of the Torrey Grammar School, displaced all competitors in the class of young people, while of the older class Miss M. C. Holbrook received the bouquet, although had the one remaining standing longest received the prize, it would have been given to Miss C. C. Tower, but the word proposed to Miss Holbrook and missed, was missed when proposed to Mrs. Tower, and a fresh trial was made. Hon. B. F. White has returned from his trip to Florida with renewed health.

FIRE DISTRICT MEETING.—At a meeting of the South Weymouth Fire District held at Music Hall, Tuesday evening, May 11th, the following officers were chosen:—A. Raymond, Jr., Chief Engineer; Noah Vincent, J. M. Weymouth, Cornelius Tirrell, Asst. Engrs.; J. S. Fogg, President; Committee: C. W. Bates, Clerk. In the report of Mr. Bates, 1st Asst., he stated that since September last he had been called upon to act as Chief, owing to the illness of Gen. J. L. Bates. The resignation of this gentleman he considered a severe blow to the department. The condition of the companies is very good, nearly all of them being full and with excellent officers. The engine is in good trim, but the lack of water was a serious inconvenience, rendering the machine nearly worthless. This he hoped would be remedied as soon as possible. The extinguisher, in his opinion, was a valuable instrument, its officers and men living within a short distance of the engine house, and he felt confident that they could be got at work anywhere in the village in 5 minutes after the alarm. Last, but not least, he would mention the Hook and Ladder, which was indisputably a fine truck, being light and convenient and second to none in the State as an ornament. The company he considered the most "Resolute," and daring that could be brought together. He had heard some complaint concerning noisy meetings of this company, but he had attended several and found them to be very quiet and orderly, and upon investigation he thought second to none in the State as an ornament. The company he considered the most "Resolute," and daring that could be brought together. He had heard some complaint concerning noisy meetings of this company, but he had attended several and found them to be very quiet and orderly, and upon investigation he thought second to none in the State as an ornament.

The due to Mr. Perkins, our well known tenor, and Mr. R. Arnold, celebrated vocal soloist, as did also the singing by Mr. E. N. Dickerman, of Boston, formerly a Braintree boy. Miss Bartlett and Miss Merrill, both fine singers, contributed largely to the enjoyment of the occasion.

You know, Mr. Editor, in a fair, there are so many interesting features, it is impossible to mention all the particulars as we would like; but it is the general verdict that this was an unusually attractive and successful fair in every respect.

The Spelling Match, at the Baptist Chapel, was pretty well contested for twenty-five or thirty spellers contending for a Webster Unabridged, Illustrated. This prize was won by L. P. Holbrook, so you need not expect any more bad spelling from her, in Braintree correspondence. After this contest was decided, the spellers who failed were invited to try again, and an "Illustrated copy of Burns" was the prize, won by Miss Helen A. Williams, teacher at South Braintree. Messrs. Deering and Bridge, and Mrs. Hammett acted as referees, while Alvin Masou, Esq., put out the words. The copy of Burns was given to the society, of human nature is elastic, and rebounds quickly where tension slackens. The joy of every season is found in its rapid flight, and the expected substitute of one more grateful to our senses, which will change for change and variety. How I pity the Hotentots and Esquimaux, subject as they are to the dull monotony of perpetual frost, or the torrid heat of the sun, which is a constant torment. Thanks for the variety vouchsafed to us, "Blood heat" is an excellent counterpart of "act"; each indicate about the limit of human endurance. Between extremes we have snow and sunny days, hurricanes and gentle zephyrs, roses and rain, together with every other variation, from the murky day to the season of crisp and clear with keen days, frosty nights and auroral displays. Let those who shiver get comfort from these reflections. If they can, if not, consider their condition. E. I. H.

ANOTHER FAMILY RECORD.—WILLIAM TIRRELL. Came from Boston, about 1655; married Rebecca, daughter of Nicholas Simpkins, of Boston, 1655. Their children were Rebecca, 1656; William, 1657; Mary, 1661; and Gideon, 1664.

Children, Gideon, 1689; died soon; Mary, 1693, married Ebenezer Boulter, 1713; Gideon, 1693, married Mary Nash, 1713; Miriam, 1696, died 1713; John, 1701, married Mary, 1721; Miriam, 1721; Deborah, 1723; John, 1725; Sarah, 1730; and probably others. John (3) died 1784.

Children, John (4), wife Mary Nash, 1715; daughter of John (3); John, 1715; Gideon, 1716; Isaac, 1724; Ebenezer, 1729; Benjamin, 1731, probably others. Wife died, 1754.

William Tirrell, Jr., born 1657, wife Abigail. Children, William, 1683, married Deborah Heywood, 1703; Samuel, 1686; Abigail, 1689, married Wm. Hersey; Children, 1694; Thomas, 1699, 1725; Rachel, 1701, married a Lincoln; Hannah, 1703, married a Shaw. He bought the whole of Pratt grant in Abington, 1705, and about that time removed there, where he was an influential man. He died Oct. 27, 1727.

THOMAS BAILEY. Freeman and in Weymouth 1645. Wife Hannah, 1645. Children, Thomas, Samuel, John, and Esther, who married John King. He appeared estate of Wm. Fry, 1643. Wife died 1681, and his wife 1668. Thomas Bailey, Jr., Freeman 1660. Wife Ruth, daughter of Richard Porter, 1660. Children were, Christian, 1662, who married Eli Whitmarsh 1682; Samuel, who died before his father; Mary, 1670, who married John King; Thomas, 1674; Thomas, 1674; Ruth, who married Henry Ward and Mayhew. His estate was divided in 1698. Thomas Bailey, Jr., Freeman 1660. Wife Ruth, daughter of Richard Porter, 1660. Children were, Christian, 1662; Samuel, who died before his father; Mary, 1670, who married John King; Thomas, 1674; Thomas, 1674; Ruth, who married Henry Ward and Mayhew. His estate was divided in 1698.

Braintree.

So BRAINTEE, May 4th, 1875. Mr. Editor.—Having a desire to attend the sessions of the Norfolk Conference, held at North Abington, I stepped into the car 9:25 A. M. and at 10 was safely landed at the place of meeting. The house of worship at N. Abington has recently been fitted up in modern style, and will compare favorably with any Churches within the bounds of the Conference. More than six thousand dollars were expended in remodeling this Church. Through the politeness of the Committee of arrangements, we were favored with a ride from the depot to the Church, and a crowd of friends met us at the door. The morning prayer service, we entered the Church. This meeting we learned was conducted by the venerable Mr. Wallace, of Rockland, which was a sufficient guarantee that all was right.

The Sabbath School meeting was held from 10 to 11:20 o'clock, and the exercises were of most interest. Several eloquent addresses were made on the best method of conducting Sabbath Schools, the greatest hindrance to progress, and other kindred topics. The Rev. H. M. Parsons, of Boston, made a thrilling address of about three-fourths of an hour, which was listened to with marked attention. At 11:20 the Conference commenced, and the narrative of the thirty-one churches, read by the Secretary. Many of these narratives were of great interest, particularly those which had enjoyed revivals. After the several Committees had made their reports, which had been appointed at a former meeting of the Conference, the session closed with the administration of the Lord's Supper. The question of a division of the Conference came up in order, and after some discussion, the conclusion was, to leave the matter to the Churches, wishing to be annexed to other Conferences, to go or remain as they should elect. A wise decision in our opinion. Although the exercises throughout were highly interesting, and the tone of feeling good, we thought that less ministrations on the part of some of the speakers, would have had a happier effect upon the minds of the large audience. We are fond of the fruitful element, and are largely impregnated with it ourselves, but doubt the propriety of ventilating on every occasion, particularly at a meeting of the Conference of Churches.

We were pleased to hear a motion made that the speaker be limited to five minutes, and yet speeches were made five times as long. Were they good speeches? Excellent and appropriate, but too long. No doubt that many valuable thoughts were suppressed for want of time that was occupied by those more gifted in speech, and more fortunate than some of their brethren in obtaining the floor. Our belief is, that all who wish, may have an opportunity to express their minds on any subject brought before the Conference, even if they are limited to three minutes. But we do not complain, the services were full and with excellent officers. The engine is in good trim, but the lack of water was a serious inconvenience, rendering the machine nearly worthless. This he hoped would be remedied as soon as possible. The extinguisher, in his opinion, was a valuable instrument, its officers and men living within a short distance of the engine house, and he felt confident that they could be got at work anywhere in the village in 5 minutes after the alarm. Last, but not least, he would mention the Hook and Ladder, which was indisputably a fine truck, being light and convenient and second to none in the State as an ornament. The company he considered the most "Resolute," and daring that could be brought together. He had heard some complaint concerning noisy meetings of this company, but he had attended several and found them to be very quiet and orderly, and upon investigation he thought second to none in the State as an ornament.

In writing of the I. D. K. Fair, last week, I spoke of an opening address by Asa P. French, son of District Attorney French. I did not hear the address, but have heard so much about it, that I cannot refrain from making particular mention of it. It was original, and is spoken of as a very ingenious, finely written and well delivered production. I should have mentioned also that Miss Amy Allen presided with dignity and grace over a prodigious cornball weighing—according to the one who guessed its weight correctly.

Mrs. E. Hayward had charge of a ring cake. The ring, I believe, was drawn by Geo. O. Wales, Esq.

Only failed for want of space, to speak of the different singers, and those who sustained parts in the dramas, singly.

The due to Mr. Perkins, our well known tenor, and Mr. R. Arnold, celebrated vocal soloist, as did also the singing by Mr. E. N. Dickerman, of Boston, formerly a Braintree boy. Miss Bartlett and Miss Merrill, both fine singers, contributed largely to the enjoyment of the occasion.

You know, Mr. Editor, in a fair, there are so many interesting features, it is impossible to mention all the particulars as we would like; but it is the general verdict that this was an unusually attractive and successful fair in every respect.

The Spelling Match, at the Baptist Chapel, was pretty well contested for twenty-five or thirty spellers contending for a Webster Unabridged, Illustrated. This prize was won by L. P. Holbrook, so you need not expect any more bad spelling from her, in Braintree correspondence. After this contest was decided, the spellers who failed were invited to try again, and an "Illustrated copy of Burns" was the prize, won by Miss Helen A. Williams, teacher at South Braintree. Messrs. Deering and Bridge, and Mrs. Hammett acted as referees, while Alvin Masou, Esq., put out the words. The copy of Burns was given to the society, of human nature is elastic, and rebounds quickly where tension slackens. The joy of every season is found in its rapid flight, and the expected substitute of one more grateful to our senses, which will change for change and variety. How I pity the Hotentots and Esquimaux, subject as they are to the dull monotony of perpetual frost, or the torrid heat of the sun, which is a constant torment. Thanks for the variety vouchsafed to us, "Blood heat" is an excellent counterpart of "act"; each indicate about the limit of human endurance. Between extremes we have snow and sunny days, hurricanes and gentle zephyrs, roses and rain, together with every other variation, from the murky day to the season of crisp and clear with keen days, frosty nights and auroral displays. Let those who shiver get comfort from these reflections. If they can, if not, consider their condition. E. I. H.

ANOTHER FAMILY RECORD.—WILLIAM TIRRELL. Came from Boston, about 1655; married Rebecca, daughter of Nicholas Simpkins, of Boston, 1655. Their children were Rebecca, 1656; William, 1657; Mary, 1661; and Gideon, 1664.

Children, Gideon, 1689; died soon; Mary, 1693, married Ebenezer Boulter, 1713; Gideon, 1693, married Mary Nash, 1713; Miriam, 1696, died 1713; John, 1701, married Mary, 1721; Miriam, 1721; Deborah, 1723; John, 1725; Sarah, 1730; and probably others. John (3) died 1784.

Children, John (4), wife Mary Nash, 1715; daughter of John (3); John, 1715; Gideon, 1716; Isaac, 1724; Ebenezer, 1729; Benjamin, 1731, probably others. Wife died, 1754.

William Tirrell, Jr., born 1657, wife Abigail. Children, William, 1683, married Deborah Heywood, 1703; Samuel, 1686; Abigail, 1689, married Wm. Hersey; Children, 1694; Thomas, 1699, 1725; Rachel, 1701, married a Lincoln; Hannah, 1703, married a Shaw. He bought the whole of Pratt grant in Abington, 1705, and about that time removed there, where he was an influential man. He died Oct. 27, 1727.

From the Gazette.

"I had a dream which was not all a dream." The present century was laid away on the dusty shelves of a past eternity and all the clerks in the United States were busily engaged scratching from their ledger-headings 1875—with a view of sublimating the Beecher trial had just been concluded, and a company of gentlemen who had spent the last twenty-five years reading the Tribune's verbatim report of the great scandalous, having come to the conclusion that the every day affairs of life were conducted in a very loose manner, where legal precision was taught as applicable to all the domestic relations. The school progressed finely for a month at the close of which time Judge Nelson, with the lawyers whose exceptions to his rulings he had so long been noting, came, by request, as a committee to examine the pupils. Everything was found in a satisfactory condition, that is, very precise—not a word laying around loose. The host for their departure arrived. Mr. Fuller sent a lad to the hostler telling the youngster to inform that equine functionary that the committee were ready to take their leave. The boy went to the hostler, and the hostler, in half a minute, the hostler, 1, 2, 3, and 4, appeared at the door. Mr. Fuller to No. 1, to inform the hostler that they were ready to take their leave? I did.

What did he say? Nothing. What did he do? Nothing. Mr. Fuller to the hostler—Why did you not act on the impression conveyed to you by the message I sent you? Mr. Fuller:—One moment, I object; the learned counsel has no right to act in accordance with an impression, the existence of which has not been proved. Judge Nelson—We will have that struck out. Mr. Fuller: You got my message did you not? Hostler: Yes. How did it affect you? I was entirely willing that you should leave. Then proceed to the stable, harness the horse, put him in the carriage, and bring both to the door. The hostler leaves and soon returns pulling the hay-wagon, with the horse on his side in it, securely tied by the legs to the cart stakes.

Mr. Fuller (Indignantly) You obeyed my orders? Hostler: Literally, as you see, sir. But I did not tell you to put the horse into the hay-wagon. Mr. Fuller: You did not specify any particular wagon, and as the hay-wagon was the only one large enough to get him into, I took that. Had you ordered him into a carriage, I should most certainly have tried my best to get him inside of it. We are in the habit of carrying out instructions to the letter, at this school. Mr. Fuller: I object to the last remark; it is superfluous and should be struck out. Judge Nelson: Certainly, strike it out. Mr. Fuller: Will the stenographer read the last sentence to the witness? The stenographer reads: Then proceed to the stable, harness the horse, put him in the carriage, and bring both horse and carriage to the door. Mr. Fuller: I said I carried a carriage; now a carriage is not a wagon. Mr. Fuller: A wagon is a carriage, and vice versa. This is a poor rule that won't work both ways. Mr. Fuller: But by which way this is carried, is the carriage which carries the thing. Judge Nelson: I must rule this point out. Mr. Fuller: Your honor will please note my exception. Mr. Fuller: There is no way to have this thing carried, as the witness says. Mr. Sherman: It is a very simple affair. Mr. Pryor: But to give full and precise legal directions for the process, is somewhat difficult. Mr. Tracy: The hour for our departure has arrived. Mr. Fuller: But the carriage has not. Mr. Fuller: The wagon has. Judge Nelson: I think we will get into the wagon with the horse, and let the hostler drive us home; it seems to be the only way out of the dilemma. As they piled into the hay-wagon, I awoke.

For the Gazette. May, the month of poetry, song and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes jealously, or some venturesome bird carols lightly; but no full and flowered myth, of the past. The present would do better to associate it with prose, lamentation and sterility. Who would aspire to be queen of such a May? Spring is coming, we can see it "under the skin" as you can measure before the first eruption. Occasionally a blade of grass pushes je

APR

tell
 of a man
 up
 that is a
 with pell who
 r-d" 1900

any
her
She
ver,

has ged dull
usi-
usi-
l at
, to wish
with stis-
ired
his
ots,
irts.
ue ;
yavo
yast-

urn
of
ars,
ear-
ent
s to ont
lars

the ing
two feet

seen
a a lek-

nts
in't
you
ver
u—acco-

n a end

but ure
rn-
to
the mp-
f a laid
id:
un-
ner,
ill,
a rar-
uld
zed
ry.

wn
in
p," rou
oth
e,el eir
ns,
re-
ext
ed.
lly
'd l" uy
ne

ay
ar-
ey
ero ato
en
or uf-
a
th
ly
b-ha
er
un
n(u
a on
on
p-
to

1-

AL CONCERT

Evening, May 20th, 1875.
Hall, - WEYMOUTH.

They have secured the services of

Maide Phillips,

BROWN,

BARNABEE,

Y BAND AND ORCHESTRA, OF BOSTON,

TY-FIVE PIECES.

YN, HERB DAMM,

HOWARD H. DOW,

RESERVED SEATS, 75 AND CENTS.

Nash, Frank Derby, W. G. Thayer, Frank Chisholm, D. D. Derby,

are at 8 o'clock. Cakes will run from all parts of the town, and

seats given in the town, and seldom staid even at home

at, before the above

ts

NGES

Grate,

and Shelf

clothes.

Better

MADE.

's

ware

UTH.

LAND

outh.

crises, as

ing to the

in the North

of a quarter

for extended

surround-

THREY.

54

CE!

anger, will

not route,

per 100 lbs.

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

u u u

G. S. EASTBROOK, Publisher.

Single copies 5 cents; to be had at the news stands in Weymouth, North, South and West Weymouth, also at South Braintree,
and at W. F. Locke, at Braintree R. R. Station.

HEAD QUARTERS REYNOLDS POST 88.

Gen'l Order, No. 1.

For the purpose of a proberance of
"Memorial Day" occurring May 30th, 1875, the comrades of Post 88 will assemble on that day, at Shaw's Corner, at 8 1/2 o'clock promptly, in the full uniform of the order.

The line will be formed immediately, and with "Brown's Brigade Band," the column will march through East Weymouth
to the Cemetery, where after musical service the graves of deceased comrades will be decorated. The column will then move to South Weymouth, direct, marching through Lovell's Corner, visiting Mt.
Hope Cemetery first, thence to Main St.,
where there will be a musical service, the column will proceed to Nash's Corner,
where carriages will be taken to the Town
Hall, where a collation will be served.
Carriages will again be taken and the procession will move to Washington Street,
opposite the Cemetery. Thence the column will march to the Square, where the flowers will be received, and the march
resumed by Front Street to the Cemetery,
where after musical service the graves taken for North Weymouth village. Receiving flowers, the column will march to the Monument, where the ceremonies of the day will close with the following PROGRAMME.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Voorhes.

Singing by a Quartette.

Oration by Rev. Mr. Gracy.

Music by Brown's Brigade Band.

Singing by Quartette.

By order of JAMES L. BATES, Com'r Post.

Geo. F. CUSHING, Asst. Adj't.

By vote of the Post, the Schools of the several villages are invited to join in the march to the Cemetery.

All are earnestly invited to help the Post in this ceremony, by furnishing all
the flowers that can be produced.

All bouquets, crosses, or wreaths designed for particular graves, should be plainly marked and they will be placed
according to the desire of the donor.

LOVELL'S CORNER, May 16th, 1875.

Mr. Editor.—The regular meeting of Weymouth Lodge, No. 158, I. O. of G.
T., was held at their hall in this place, on Wednesday evening, May 2d, when the following officers were installed for the ensuing term. The installation exercises were conducted by D. G. W. C. T. O. T.
Hansen, assisted by D. G. W. M. Wm.
Phelon.

W. C. T., Mr. Wm. Townsend, Jr.; W.
V. T., Mr. L. B. French; W. C., Rev.
J. C. Halliday; W. S., Miss L. B. French;
W. A. S., Mr. John G. Stewart; W. S.
Mrs. E. J. Richards; W. T., Miss A. W.
Ford; W. M., Mr. F. H. Hunt; W. D.
M., Miss B. S. Pratt; W. R. H. S., Mrs. L. S. Townsend; W. L. H. S., Miss
M. L. Cudworth; W. I. G., Miss A. L.
Pratt; W. O. G., Mr. E. B. Andrus; P.
W. C. T., Mr. W. F. Holbrook.

Since this Lodge was instituted in this place, it has been productive of great good.
Our numbers have been largely augmented
during our brief existence, and the Lodge is progressing finely. Many of those who rallied at the idea of the formation of a Lodge here, have become firm
friends of the organization; they see that great object and purpose in the elevation of mankind, and womankind; to teach
those who have gone, and are going astray,
to use the reason which God has given them, and not to allow the liquid poison
to, to tempt, like steel it away; and may
the time come, when all men and women will use their reason in regard to this, for then must follow the extermination of the fool, which steals away the pride of our nation, and this stain obliterated from our history, a glorious future awaits us.

TEMPER.

BASE BALL.—The Active beat the Noddies. Wednesday afternoon, May 12th, the Active played their third game,
at Boston Common, with the Noddies, of East Boston.

The day was a very poor one for ball playing. The Policemen were unable to keep the crowd back, and clouds of dust
swept across the grounds, making fielding almost impossible.

The game was unavoidably postponed
until 4.30, when the Noddies went to the bat, scoring two runs in the first inning.
At the commencement of the 7th inning,
the Noddies had the lead. The Active then began to realize the serious nature of their position, and by extra batting they succeeded in scoring three runs, in the eighth inning, and the game stood to 8 in their favor. The 9th was a blank for the Noddies, and the Active increased their lead by two more runs, winning the game, an up hill one, throughout. Following is the score.

Active. R. O. H. P. O. A.

Bates, 1b. 4 3 10 0

Raymond, s.s. 4 2 3 4

Hixling, 2b. 3 1 2 0

Shaw, c. 1 2 0 2

Clapp, c.f. 1 4 0 1

Blay, 3b. 0 1 2 3

Arnold, c. 1 5 0 0

Barlow, 2b. 1 3 0 2

Total. 12 27 11 27

Noddies. R. O. H. P. O. A.

Davis, s.s. 1 4 0 0

Renell, 1b. 3 1 2 11

Wood, 1b. 2 1 1 4

McMichael, 3b. 0 2 2 0

Parks, 2b. 0 4 0 2

Converse, c. 0 2 1 6

Peterson, c.f. 1 0 0 0

Osley, 2b. 1 4 1 3

Murphy, r.f. 0 1 0 0

Total. 8 27 8 27

INNINGS.

Clubs. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Active. 0 0 3 0 2 3 2-12

Noddies. 2 0 3 0 1 1 0-8

Umpire, Mr. A. H. Vinal, of the Boston J. Club.

Time of Game, 2 hours, 10 minutes.

South Weymouth, May 1, 1875.

A. C. HOLLIS.

B. B.

MARRIED.

In South Weymouth, May 1st, by Rev. J. Baker,
Mr. Nelson Parker, Clary to Miss Lydia Vines.
In South Weymouth, May 1st, by Rev. Geo. F.
Francis P. Holman, aged 48 years, to Miss Frances P. Holman, aged 48 years, to Miss
In South Braintree, May 1st, Mr. S. W. Upson, aged 30, to Miss M. S. Upson, aged 21.
In Braintree, May 1st, of Miss Mr. Ebenezer
Down, aged 18, to Miss, aged 21.

DEATH.

In Weymouth, May 1st, of Miss Mr. Ebenezer
Down, aged 18, to Miss, aged 21.

Advertisements.

Jos. Sherman & Co.

DEALERS IN

COAL,

WOOD,

LIME, CEMENT, BRICK

LATHS, HAIR, etc.,

BUNDLE HAY

FLOUR, GRAIN,

AND FEED

WOOD LAYED FOR $1.50 per Cord.

Office - - Wharf and East streets,

EAST WEYMOUTH

MASS.

$10.00

WILL BUY A BARREL OF

PRATT'S HAXALL,

The best Flour sold in this County,

AT

A. J. BATES & Co's,

East Braintree.

Cheaper than Ever!

Reduced the Price

EXTENSION TABLES

to $1.50 per foot for common, and $1.00 per foot for

WOOD AND ONE SEAT CHAIRS

LOWER THAN EVER BEFORE.

Read & Phillips,

30 41 NORTH WEYMOUTH.

E. A. FOGG,

House & Sign Painter,

Washington Square,

WEYMOUTH LANDING.

MIXED PAINTS CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

Special attention given to

Graining, Paper-Hanging, Hard

Wood Filling.

All work warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

TERMS CASH.

REBUILT.

Having completed our new Factory in place of the old one, we are now prepared

with improved machinery and new patterns, to manufacture for the Trade and to order, first-class

Cabinet work of every description.

Black Walnut Chamber Suites

at Factory prices.

Book Cases, Sideboards,

Wardrobes and Hall Stands.

Extension Tables

(with improved patent iron slides.)

CENTRE AND LIBRARY TABLES.

READ AND PHILLIPS,

North Street, North Weymouth.

20 41

THOMAS J. McGOVERN,

Would call the attention of the public to his

READ

THIS!

FOR THAT IT MIGHT

SAVE YOU A DOLLAR.

which we all know is not

Necessary these Hard Times.

THE SUBSCRIBER ONCE MORE TAKES

PLEASURE IN ANNOUNCING THAT HE

HAS THE MOST ABSORBENT OF

DRY AND

FANCY

GOODS,

FURNITURE

CARPETS,

PAPER

HANGINGS,

CURTAINS,

CROCKERY

Glassware,

Children's

Carriages,

AND EVERYTHING BELONGING TO A

FIRST CLASS STORE. TO BE FOUND THIS

SIDE OF DOWNTOWN.

Being in the market every day, I am enabled to buy, with Cash in my hand, these many in the trade, and thereby in condition to sell cheaper,

and will not be understood, without exception, by anybody.

GREAT

CLOSING OUT

SALE

Boots, Shoes

AND RUBBERS.

Owing to want of room, I am desirous of closing

out my stock of boots and shoes, and have marked

the price of the same below wholesale prices, and will pay to look at my prices before purchasing elsewhere.

E. Rosenfeld,

SOUTH WEYMOUTH.

APRIL 16th, 1875.

THE

South Weymouth

SAVINGS BANK

Is open to receive Deposits from 8 to 10 A. M. and 3-12 to 5 P.

M. daily.

DEPOSITS are put upon interest on the second

Wednesday of January, April, July and October.

Quarterly dividends of 5 per cent. are immediately added to the principal, and also an extra dividend of 10 per cent. is paid on the 1st of Jan., 1875.

The next extra dividend will come in Jan., 1875.

S. Weymouth, Jan. 5, 1875. S. W.

COAL

WOOD AND HAY,

Wharf, East Braintree.

FRANKLIN COAL, (Coke's) Valley;

WHITE ASH COALS;

DANIEL WHEAT, Deep Bed Ash;

HARD AND MINE WOOD;

BUNDLE HAY.

For Sale at Lowest Cash Rates.

Bundle Hay and Straw

FOR SALE BY

JOS. LOUD & CO.,

WEYMOUTH LANDING

NOTICE.

J. N. L. BICKNELL has this day retired from the firm of BICKNELL & BROTHERS.

All debts due to or by the firm will be settled by

Z. L. BICKNELL, who will continue the business

under the name of BICKNELL & BROTHERS.

Z. L. BICKNELL, 101 N. B. ST.

East Weymouth, April 1st, 1875. 322

JUST ARRIVED,

A CARGO OF

Nice Skimming Sand,

AND FOR SALE BY

F. A. GARDNER & CO.,

WEYMOUTH, MASS.

Setchell's Patent

Pot Plant, Garden and Veranda

TRELLISES,

(Patented Aug. 10th, 1874.)

Prices ranging from Eight Cts. to $1.00.

FOR SALE BY

S. W. PRATT,

WEYMOUTH, MASS.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber having in stock, a variety of

very fine, and of the best quality, of the

very fine, and of the best quality, of the

very fine, and of the best quality, of the

very fine, and of the best quality, of the

very fine, and of the best quality, of the

very fine, and of the best quality, of the 15 cents

a arranges a nolices

a that cross, is resume
 ined to
 N. H., Ezekiel spelled
 ook the Cal., a ero for
 name,
 he un-
 read the
 to see coming
 a wood
 i about
 the ge,
 Their
 umble-
 nt an
 he liked
 mpter;

ference in giving
the fifty-five
does not damaged
$0,000,- has been
which
of that children at depends
to make shav-ps the sadly
soon an enters
says if realize
it,
ps been
sum of expense
for the works in

whole
is born
ought to
not ap-
assion
ed by maternal
nity in-
when
in the s, upon
s, have
quence
a china
cient
asked questie
at her
"He
whole
sted to
ulture,
eal and
The
iated
asked a
when a

in the 1871, sons to granda
 cult in (SI, in er was tor en
 ilroad,
 in this
 If you
 is gone
 s you
 with-
 very sion of
 in the
 th the dinato
 their
 of the
 an ex-
 justifi-

the
 you this
 paper.
 no was
 it was

 two years
 ph than
 the in-
 bisky,
 little r
 tedlie
 e was marked;

 North
 g. Byo
 on of a lan
 twined
 to my
 of the
 dicit-
 it well
 a well-

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1873.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

There can be no question but that we are passing through a unusual period of political activity. The presence here of a large number of prominent politicians of both parties—an unusual circumstance during a recess of Congress—the delay of prominent administrationists in leaving the sea-shore and mountains, on exodus to the city, the presence of Senators and Members to the South and West, to say nothing of the numerous peripatetics of our garrets, &c., are all agitated straws floating in the sea of politics.

LOCAL NEWS.

(See next page for further local intelligence.)

SAD AFFLICTION.—The family of Mr. Michael Murphy, of Weymouth Landing, have been sadly afflicted this week in the death of his sister, Mrs. Julia Morgan, who died on Saturday last, of pneumonia, followed by the death of her aged mother, followed by the death of her aged mother, followed by the death of her aged mother.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.—The improvements on the Washington St. front of the Village Cemetery at Weymouth Landing, mentioned last week, have led to further action on the part of public-spirited residents in the vicinity, who have this week given their services to a renovation of the grounds inside of the fence, at the same point, the underbrush having been cut away, and a deep coating of earth laid on, covering up the unsightly debris and adding to the attractiveness of the neighborhood.

THE TRACT OF WOOD-LAND east of Washington street, Weymouth Landing, extending from David Richardson's place to the Torrey farm, was burned over on Saturday and Sunday last, the fire probably having been started by some mischievous or careless hand.

THE NEW POST OFFICE building at Weymouth Landing will soon be ready for occupancy.

SEARCH.—A rumor has been in circulation at Weymouth Landing for several days of the occasional appearance of a strange man, who had been seen coming out of different tracts of wood in the vicinity, and we learn that a posse of policemen from Boston, were engaged in a search of the woods last Monday, the supposition being that the stranger might be the murderer of Mrs. McCarthy, at Dorchester.

THE NEW DWELLING on Washington St., Weymouth Landing, still "hangs fire," its proper construction being a question of a decidedly vexatious nature. Perhaps an engineer might solve the difficulty, but at all events, the work should be commenced immediately.

THE SHERIFF in the District Court Monday morning, Frank Carrigan and Daniel Carrigan of East Braintree were convicted of having in their possession 14 small and were fined $14 and costs, amounting to $22.50.

BAPTIST.—Six converts at the Zion's Hill Baptist Church, East Weymouth, were baptised last Sabbath in the Pond adjacent to the Cemetery at that village.

AT THE LAST meeting of Union Lodge, I. O. of G. T., the following officers were just installed by the D. G. W. C. T., William Collier, assisted by Bro. Goodspeed and Dyer of the Grand Lodge: W. C. T. F. A. Bates; W. V. T. T. O. T. Hasset; W. C. A. Bates; W. M. E. Young; W. D. C. A. Bates; W. L. S. G. J. Dugan; W. O. G. Warner; D. A. Bates; W. R. S. M. Fore; W. L. S. Hayden.

DEPARTURE.—Hon. Albert Pearing, of Hingham, for many years President of the town Agricultural Society, and whose memory will long be cherished for his many philanthropic and benevolent acts which characterized his life, died in Hingham last Monday, at the age of 77.

DEBATE.—A meeting of the Temperance Union was held in the Baptist Chapel, on Sunday evening, May 23d.

DEBATE.—A meeting of the Temperance Union was held in the Baptist Chapel, on Sunday evening, May 23d.

North Weymouth.

NARROW ESCAPE.—One morning last week, Mr. David Ford, while loading his wagon with dandelions for market, had a narrow escape from being killed. He was standing in the forward part of the wagon placing the boxes, the horse started into a run, throwing Mr. Ford out. He fell behind the horse's heels, between the thills, and was dragged some distance before being freed from his perilous situation, but fortunately Mr. Ford escaped with only a few bruises.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday last week, while men were loading a vessel with gravel near Hunt's Hill, one of the men, while returning from the vessel with a wheelbarrow, slipped off the track and fell into the mud, some six or eight feet, the wheelbarrow falling upon him and breaking one of his legs.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY have in view the erection of a house upon their grounds, for the accommodation of horses that shall be entered in the races of the Society. It has been difficult to get nice horses entered in races, for the want of suitable stalls for their shelter.

THE VILLAGE OF LOVELL'S CORNER was saddened by the death of Lyman Simile, who left his home a week ago last Monday, and was killed upon the Boston & Albany R. R. track, near the station in Boston. He was seen lying about the Old Colony building, several times during the day, Monday, in company with a suspicious individual, and when asked to give his name declined, but afterward said he was "Billy O'Brien."

THE NEW DWELLING on Washington St., Weymouth Landing, still "hangs fire," its proper construction being a question of a decidedly vexatious nature. Perhaps an engineer might solve the difficulty, but at all events, the work should be commenced immediately.

THE SHERIFF in the District Court Monday morning, Frank Carrigan and Daniel Carrigan of East Braintree were convicted of having in their possession 14 small and were fined $14 and costs, amounting to $22.50.

BAPTIST.—Six converts at the Zion's Hill Baptist Church, East Weymouth, were baptised last Sabbath in the Pond adjacent to the Cemetery at that village.

AT THE LAST meeting of Union Lodge, I. O. of G. T., the following officers were just installed by the D. G. W. C. T., William Collier, assisted by Bro. Goodspeed and Dyer of the Grand Lodge: W. C. T. F. A. Bates; W. V. T. T. O. T. Hasset; W. C. A. Bates; W. M. E. Young; W. D. C. A. Bates; W. L. S. G. J. Dugan; W. O. G. Warner; D. A. Bates; W. R. S. M. Fore; W. L. S. Hayden.

DEPARTURE.—Hon. Albert Pearing, of Hingham, for many years President of the town Agricultural Society, and whose memory will long be cherished for his many philanthropic and benevolent acts which characterized his life, died in Hingham last Monday, at the age of 77.

DEBATE.—A meeting of the Temperance Union was held in the Baptist Chapel, on Sunday evening, May 23d.

Weymouth Family Record.

RICHARD PORTER.

HUSBANDMAN. Came from Weymouth, England, to Weymouth, Massachusetts, in 1635, with William Reed, Henry Kingman, Zachary Bicknell, Robert Lovell, Philip Reed.

IN 1648, and after, he was Townsman or Selectman. In 1668, for several years was Constable, an important office in those days, as the election had to be confirmed by the General Court. He was often on Committee pertaining to church matters.

HE HAD land granted him by the Town several times. His descendants are in number in all the towns on the South Shore, and in other States besides Massachusetts. Governors, Generals, Doctors of Divinity, Judges, (one now in Norfolk County Weymouth name and lineage) and others distinguished in all the walks of life; a company of descendants any ancestor might be proud of.

THE NORTOLK COUNTY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION will hold its twenty-eighth annual meeting in the Methodist Church, East Weymouth, on Friday and Saturday, June 4th and 5th.

THE EXERCISES will consist of papers, and discussions on various educational topics. The sessions will be open to the public and will without doubt, be occasions of interest and profit to all who may be present.

THE EPIDEMIC OF CRIME which is assailing our country, is producing through the whole country, has produced one of the most terrible tragedies on record, in the slaughter of the little girl, Mabel Young, in Hingham, last Sunday, the crime being heightened in its damnable character by the fact that the murderer selected a church as the theatre of his bloody deed.

THE EPIPHANY OF CRIME which is assailing our country, is producing through the whole country, has produced one of the most terrible tragedies on record, in the slaughter of the little girl, Mabel Young, in Hingham, last Sunday, the crime being heightened in its damnable character by the fact that the murderer selected a church as the theatre of his bloody deed.

THE EPIPHANY OF CRIME which is assailing our country, is producing through the whole country, has produced one of the most terrible tragedies on record, in the slaughter of the little girl, Mabel Young, in Hingham, last Sunday, the crime being heightened in its damnable character by the fact that the murderer selected a church as the theatre of his bloody deed.

THE EPIPHANY OF CRIME which is assailing our country, is producing through the whole country, has produced one of the most terrible tragedies on record, in the slaughter of the little girl, Mabel Young, in Hingham, last Sunday, the crime being heightened in its damnable character by the fact that the murderer selected a church as the theatre of his bloody deed.

THE EPIPHANY OF CRIME which is assailing our country, is producing through the whole country, has produced one of the most terrible tragedies on record, in the slaughter of the little girl, Mabel Young, in Hingham, last Sunday, the crime being heightened in its damnable character by the fact that the murderer selected a church as the theatre of his bloody deed.

TEN THOUSAND

POST 58, G. A. R.,

Have made arrangements for a Grand Closing

"MEMORIAL CONCERT"

ON SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 30TH, 1873,

AT THE TOWN HALL, WEYMOUTH,

For which occasion they have secured the services of

Miss Adelaide Phillips,

the best Alto Singer in the world.

MRS. H. C. BROWN,

Superior, recently returned from Italy, after 5 years study.

MR. H. C. BARNABEE,

Baritone and Tenor, acknowledged to be the greatest favorite who has ever appeared in Weymouth. Also,

BROWN'S FULL MILITARY BAND AND ORCHESTRA, OF BOSTON,

Twenty-five pieces.

HENRY C. BROWN, HERR DAMM,

the authorized Concert Soloists.

FRANZ LEIBTUS, HOWARD M. DOW,

the authorized Concert Soloists.

ADMISSION 50 CENTS. RESERVED SEATS 75 AND 50 CENTS.

Tickets for sale by B. S. Lovell, Elizabeth Nash, Frank Deane, W. G. Thayer, Frank Cushing, D. Dunbar, and Frank Thomas. Concert will commence at 8 o'clock. Tickets will run from all parts of the town and vicinity. The last and best for the farthest corner given in this town, and seldom crossed even at Maine Hall, Boston.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

TEN THOUSAND

POST 58, G. A. R.,

Have made arrangements for a Grand Closing

"MEMORIAL CONCERT"

ON SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 30TH, 1873,

AT THE TOWN HALL, WEYMOUTH,

For which occasion they have secured the services of

Miss Adelaide Phillips,

the best Alto Singer in the world.

MRS. H. C. BROWN,

Superior, recently returned from Italy, after 5 years study.

MR. H. C. BARNABEE,

Baritone and Tenor, acknowledged to be the greatest favorite who has ever appeared in Weymouth. Also,

BROWN'S FULL MILITARY BAND AND ORCHESTRA, OF BOSTON,

Twenty-five pieces.

HENRY C. BROWN, HERR DAMM,

the authorized Concert Soloists.

FRANZ LEIBTUS, HOWARD M. DOW,

the authorized Concert Soloists.

ADMISSION 50 CENTS. RESERVED SEATS 75 AND 50 CENTS.

Tickets for sale by B. S. Lovell, Elizabeth Nash, Frank Deane, W. G. Thayer, Frank Cushing, D. Dunbar, and Frank Thomas. Concert will commence at 8 o'clock. Tickets will run from all parts of the town and vicinity. The last and best for the farthest corner given in this town, and seldom crossed even at Maine Hall, Boston.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the subscriber has been duly appointed

Administrator of the Estate of JAMES H. BARNABEE,

late of Weymouth, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are required to make payment to said administrator on or before the first day of June next.

JAMES H. BARNABEE, Adm'r.

May 15th, 1873.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

